Displaying html pages within SharePoint - Experts-Exchange When I point page viewer to the .htm file and then open the page with the page viewer, instead of opening the .htm it wants to download it. Similar to if I clicked on file in a document library, it prompts to download the file. How can I display an HTML file in the main sharepoint frame? My original thought was to upload the HTML files via WebDAV (\\sharepoint\DavWWWRoot\mysite) using a script but it seems to be a bit of a clunky method as I would prefer the htm file to be displayed within the SharePoint frame instead of the plain white HTML file generated by PowerShell.
